Fees for accredited nationally recognised training

General

A student with financial difficulties is encouraged to seek special consideration, for a negotiated payment plan, to ensure that the student may access training.

To identify whether you may be eligible for a government funded training place, please visit http://www.education.vic.gov.au/victorianskillsgateway/Students/Pages/vtg-eligibility-indicator.aspx

A concession card holder is a student who, prior to the commencement of training, holds a current and valid Commonwealth Health Care Card, Pensioner Concession Card, or a Veteran's Gold Card. The concession provided is also available to a dependant spouse or dependent child of a card holder.

In addition to course costs a student doing an accredited course may be required to pay an additional fee in the following circumstances:

1. If there is a need to be re-assessed for a unit of competency after being offered the opportunities and support available throughout the duration of the course of study. This may include an assignment submitted late, beyond an agreed extension date.

2. If a student is required to undertake a further workplace assessment in addition to those scheduled during the course.
